BYLAW
ON THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING
“Mechel” Open Joint Stock Company

Moscow, 2010

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Bylaw on the general shareholders meeting

1. This bylaw on the general shareholders meeting of Mechel Open Joint Stock Company (hereinafter the “Company”) defines, in accordance with the Civil Code of the Russian Federation, the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies, other laws and regulations of the Russian Federation, and the Company’s Charter, the procedure for calling, holding and summing up of the results of the Company’s general meetings of shareholders.
2. The general shareholders meeting is the Company’s supreme management body.
3. The Company shall provide all the shareholders with equal opportunities to participate in general meetings of shareholders.

2. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 2. Terms for holding of an annual general meeting of shareholders

1. The Company shall undertake annually to hold an annual general meeting of shareholders.
2. Annual general meetings of shareholders shall be held at least two months, and no later than six months, after the end of each fiscal year.

A fiscal year has been determined to last from 1st January through 31st December of each calendar year.

Article 3. Issues covered by annual general meetings of shareholders

1. The following are mandatory issues to be covered by an annual general meeting of shareholders:
 - approval of the Company’s annual report;
 - approval of the Company’s annual accounts, including the Company’s profit and loss statement (profit and loss accounts);
 - distribution of profits (including payment (declaration) of dividends, except for the profit distributed as dividends for the first quarter, six months, nine months of a fiscal year) and the Company’s losses for a fiscal year;
 - election of the Company’s Board of Directors;
 - election of the Company’s Audit Commission;
 - appointment of the Company’s auditor.
2. An annual general meeting of shareholders can cover other issues within the relevant competence if such issues are duly put on the agenda in accordance with the Russian law and the Company’s Charter.

3. PROPOSALS FOR PUTTING ITEMS ON THE AGENDA OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS. PROPOSALS FOR NOMINATING CANDIDATES FOR ELECTION TO THE COMPANY’S BODIES AT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 4. Putting items on the agenda of annual general meetings of shareholders and nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies at annual general meetings of shareholders

1. A shareholder (shareholders) owning in aggregate at least Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares are entitled to put items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders.
2. A shareholder (shareholders) owning in aggregate at least Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares are entitled to nominate candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors, Audit Commission, and returning board within the maximum size of the relevant body as set out in the Company's Charter.
3. Proposals for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall be submitted by the shareholders to the Company within Thirty (30) days of completion of the relevant fiscal year.
4. The number of shares owned by the shareholder(s) signing a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies, shall be calculated as at the date of submission of the relevant proposal to the Company.

If after said date the number of shares owned by such a shareholder (such shareholders) falls below Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares or such a shareholder (such shareholders) has (have) ceased to own the Company's voting shares, the submitted proposal shall be deemed valid and the Board of Directors shall process it. Proposals cannot be rejected on the above-mentioned ground.

The Company's Board of Directors shall at its own discretion obtain data from the Company's shareholder register regarding the number of shares of the relevant category (type) owned by the shareholder(s) signing a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies.

A shareholder (shareholders) signing a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies, shall be entitled to provide the Company with a relevant abstract of the Company's shareholder register evidencing his/her (their) ownership of the relevant number of the Company's voting shares as at the date of submission of the relevant proposal.

5. The total number of the Company's voting shares shall be calculated as at the date of each proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies.

The relative share (percentage) of the number of the Company's voting shares owned by shareholders signing the proposals in the total number of the Company's voting shares shall be calculated as at the date of submission of each relevant proposal.

6. Shareholder's (shareholders') proposals for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall be submitted in writing, shall specify the name (business name) of the relevant shareholder(s) and shall be delivered by post to the address (location) of the Company's sole executive body as stated in the Uniform Register of Legal Entities or shall be delivered against signature to the relevant person acting as the Company's sole executive body, the chairman of the Board of Directors or any other person authorized to accept written correspondence addressed to the Company. Oral proposals or those submitted by fax, by wire or using any other form of communication or by electronic mail shall not be accepted or processed.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies is delivered by post, it shall be deemed submitted on the date of the relevant mailing date stamp impression; where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders is delivered personally against signature, it shall be deemed submitted on the date of delivery thereof.

7. A proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall be signed by the proposing shareholders. If a proposal is made by a shareholder that is a legal entity, it shall be signed by the legal entity's representative authorized by the legal entity's charter to act without any power of attorney, and such a representative's signature shall be supported by the legal entity's seal.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies says that it is initiated by several shareholders but is signed by only some of them, such a proposal shall be deemed submitted by the shareholder(s) who has(ve) signed it. The Board of Directors shall process such a proposal without any right to reject it on the ground that not all of the relevant shareholders have signed it.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies is signed by the shareholder's proxy, such a proposal shall be supported by the relevant proxy card containing details of the proxy and the shareholder or any other documents confirming the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the relevant shareholder. If such a proxy card results from reassignment of authority, such a proxy card (or copy thereof) shall go with the original proxy card (or copy thereof).

Other documents confirming a proxy's authority to act on behalf of the relevant shareholder include authorizing documents based on statutory provisions or a legal instrument of an authorized governmental agency or local authority.

The proxy cards shall be duly executed in accordance with Paragraphs 4 & 5 Article 185 of the Russian Civil Code or shall be notarized, as well as in accordance with the proxy card execution requirements of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies. Where a copy of a proxy card is provided, such a copy shall be notarized.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies is signed by a shareholder (his/her proxy) whose rights to shares are based on a custody account, such a proposal (request) shall go with an abstract of the shareholder's account with the custodian in charge of keeping records of the rights to the shares in question.

8. A proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall include information on the number and category (type) of the shares owned by each shareholder signing the relevant proposal.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders specifies incorrect number, category (type) of shares owned by the shareholder(s) signing the relevant proposal, and the Board of Directors has found out that the shareholder(s) signing the proposal owns (own) in aggregate at least Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares as at the date of submission, the relevant item shall be put on the agenda of the relevant annual general meeting of shareholders.

Where a proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies specifies incorrect number, category (type) of shares owned by the shareholder(s) signing the relevant proposal, and the Board of Directors has found out that the shareholder(s) signing the proposal owns (own) in aggregate at least Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares as at the date of submission, the relevant candidate shall be included in the list of nominees for election to the Company's relevant body.

Article 5. Special requirements for proposals for putting items on the agenda of annual general meetings of shareholders

1. A written proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders shall include the wording of each proposed item and can include the text of the draft resolution for each proposed item.
2. Each proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders shall be processed by the Board of Directors individually. The votes of the shareholders signing different proposals for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders shall not be summarized.

Shareholders shall be deemed to have made a joint proposal for putting an item on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders if they have all signed one such proposal.

In order to have an item put on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders, at least one relevant proposal should be available signed by the shareholders possessing the number of the Company's voting shares required by law.

3. The Company's Board of Directors shall alter neither the wording of the items proposed by shareholders for putting on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders nor the relevant draft resolutions for such items.

The Company's Board of Directors shall be entitled to propose its own wording for the draft resolutions on the items proposed by the shareholders for putting on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders.

Article 6. Special requirements for proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies at annual general meetings of shareholders

1. Proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors, Audit Commission or returning board shall specify the name of each nominated candidate and the name of the body to where the relevant candidate is nominated.
2. In case of nominating candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors, Audit Commission or returning board, the relevant proposal for the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders shall go with the relevant nominee's written declaration whereby he/she agrees to be elected as well as the nominees' details, including his/her passport details, place of residence, education, age, positions held by him/her during the past Five (5) years, the current position held as at the date of nomination, including his/her directorships and positions in other legal entities as well as nominations for election to the boards of directors or election (appointment) to a position in other legal entities, information on his/her relationships with the Company's affiliated parties and major counterparties.

3. The number of candidates in one proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall not exceed the size of the relevant body as set out in the Charter.

Should the number of candidates in a proposal exceed the size of the Company's relevant body as set out in the Charter, the number of candidates to be processed shall be limited to the size of the Company's relevant body as set out in the Company's Charter. In this case the top candidates listed in the relevant proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall be selected and processed.

4. Each proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall be processed by the Board of Directors individually.
5. The votes of the shareholders signing different proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies shall not be summarized.

Shareholders shall be deemed to have made a joint proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies if they have all signed one such proposal.

In order to have a candidate put on the list of nominees for the Company's bodies, at least one relevant proposal should be available that has been signed by the shareholders possessing the number of the Company's voting shares required by law.

If a candidate is mentioned in one or several proposals for nominating candidates for election to one and the same body of the Company, such a candidate shall be deemed only once nominated and put on the list of nominees for the relevant body.

6. If there are no candidates nominated by the shareholders (or the number of such candidates is insufficient) to form the relevant body, the Board of Directors shall nominate the missing candidates at its own discretion.

Article 7. Approval of the lists of nominees for election to the Company's bodies and the items put on the agenda of annual general meetings of shareholders

1. The Company's Board of Directors should process the proposals submitted and resolve on whether or not to put them on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders within Five (5) days of expiration of the term set out in Article 4 hereof for submission of proposals for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies. An item proposed by a shareholder (shareholders) shall be put on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders as well as a candidate nominated shall be put on the list of nominees for election to the Company's relevant body unless:
 - the shareholder(s) has(ve) failed to comply with Clause 4 herein for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies;
 - the shareholder(s) signing the relevant proposal for putting items on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies does (do) not own the number of the Company's voting shares required by Paragraph 1 Article 53 of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies;
 - the proposal fails to comply with Paragraphs 3 & 4 Article 53 of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Company, the Charter, and this Bylaw;
 - the item proposed for putting on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders is not within its competence as specified in the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies and the Company's Charter and/or does not comply with the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies or other statutory requirements of the Russian Federation. In particular, subject to the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies and the Company's Charter, such item can only be processed by a general shareholders meeting if proposed by the Board of Directors and/or if the Board of Directors has failed to carry a prior unanimous resolution on this item.

2. The Company's Board of Directors shall provide the relevant shareholder(s) with a reasoned refusal to put the proposed item on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders or to put the candidate proposed on the list of nominees for election to the Company's relevant body within Three (3) days of such a decision.

Article 8. Putting items on the agenda of annual general meetings as proposed by the Board of Directors

1. In addition to the items proposed by the shareholders for putting on the agenda of an annual general meeting of shareholders, or in case no such proposals have been received from the shareholders, or if no or insufficient number of candidates have been nominated by the shareholders to form the relevant body, the Company's Board of Directors shall be entitled to put items on the agenda of the annual general meeting and relevant draft resolutions or nominate candidates at its own discretion.
2. After the shareholders have been notified of an annual general meeting in the manner stated in the Company's Charter, the agenda of the annual general meeting shall not be changed.

Article 9. Rights of the candidates put on the list of nominees for the Company's bodies

1. Any candidate nominated for election to the Company's bodies can at any time stand down subject to a written notice submitted to the Company.
2. If the Company receives a written notice from a candidate whereby he/she refuses to be elected to the Company's relevant body after the Board of Directors has approved the format and wording of the voting ballot for elections to the Company's relevant body, no changes shall be made to the ballot. During the relevant discussion at a general shareholders meeting the chairman of the general shareholders meeting shall report receipt of such notice(s) from the candidate(s) included in the list of nominees for election to the Company's bodies.
3. Where a candidate is nominated by himself/herself, such a candidate shall be deemed to have provided a written declaration whereby he/she agrees to be elected to the Board of Directors.

4. EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

Article 10. Calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting

1. An extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be called by the Company's Board of Directors resolution as initiated by itself, the Company's Audit Commission, the Company's auditor or a shareholder (shareholders) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares as at the date of the relevant request.
2. A shareholder (shareholders) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares can deliver his/her request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting by post to the address (location) of the Company's sole executive body as stated in the Uniform Register of Legal Entities or personally against signature to the relevant person acting as the Company's sole executive body, the Chairman of the Board of Directors or any other person authorized to accept written correspondence addressed to the Company. Oral proposals or those submitted by fax, by wire or using any other form of communication or by electronic mail shall not be accepted or processed.

Where a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is delivered by regular mail, it shall be deemed submitted on the date of the relevant mailing date stamp impression; where a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is delivered by registered mail, it shall be deemed submitted on the date of delivery thereof against signature.

Where a request for holding of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is delivered personally against signature, it shall be deemed submitted on the date of delivery thereof.

3. The number of the Company's voting shares owned by the shareholder(s) signing a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting and the total number of the Company's voting shares shall be calculated as at the date of submission of the relevant request to the Company.

The relative share (percentage) of the number of the Company's voting shares owned by shareholder(s) signing the request for holding of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting in the total number of the Company's voting shares shall be calculated as at the date of submission of each relevant request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting.

If after said date the number of shares owned by such a shareholder (such shareholders) falls below Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares or such a shareholder (such shareholders) has (have) ceased to own the Company's voting shares, the submitted request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be deemed valid and the Board of Directors shall process it. A request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting cannot be rejected on the above-mentioned ground.

The Board of Directors shall at its own discretion obtain data from the Company's shareholder register regarding the number of shares of the relevant category (type) owned by each shareholder signing a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting.

4. Subject to the relevant request from the Company's Audit Commission, the Company's auditor or the Company's shareholder(s) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares, an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be called by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors can process requests and applications from other bodies and persons (including governmental authorities, shareholders owning fewer voting shares of the Company's than the required minimum threshold etc.) for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting. Once such a request is satisfied, an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be called by the board of Directors.

Article 11. Terms for calling of extraordinary general shareholders meetings

The terms of calling of extraordinary general shareholders meetings shall be governed by the Company's Charter and the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies.

Article 12. Content and format of the request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting

1. A request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall specify the issues to be put on the agenda of the meeting.

A request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting can include draft resolutions for each agenda item as well as a proposal regarding the form of holding of a general shareholders meeting. Where a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting includes a proposal for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies, requirements set out in Article 53 of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies and Section 3 hereof shall apply to such a proposal as far as they concern nomination of candidates for election to the Company's bodies at annual general meetings of shareholders.

The Board of Directors shall not be able to change the wording of the agenda items, relevant draft resolutions for such items or the proposed form of holding of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting called as requested by the Company's Audit Commission, the Company's auditor or a shareholder (shareholders) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares.

2. Where calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is requested by a shareholder (shareholders), such a request shall specify the name(s)/business name(s) of the shareholder(s) requesting calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting as well as the number and category (type) of the shares owned by him/her (them).
3. A request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be signed by the requesting party/parties.

Where a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting says that it is initiated by several parties but is signed by only some of them, such a request shall be deemed submitted by the party (parties) who has(ve) signed it. The Board of Directors shall process such a request without any right to reject it on the ground that not all of the relevant parties have signed it.

4. If a request is made by a shareholder that is a legal entity, it shall be signed by the legal entity's representative authorized by the legal entity's charter to act without any power of attorney, and such a representative's signature shall be supported by the relevant legal entity's seal.

Where a request is signed by the shareholder's proxy, such a request shall be supported by the relevant proxy card containing details of the proxy and the shareholder or any other documents confirming the proxy's authority to act on behalf of the relevant shareholder. If such a proxy card results from reassignment of authority, such a proxy card (or copy thereof) shall go with the original proxy card (or copy thereof).

Other documents confirming a proxy's authority to act on behalf of the relevant shareholder include authorizing documents based on statutory provisions or a legal instrument of an authorized governmental agency or local authority.

The proxy cards shall be duly executed in accordance with Paragraphs 4 & 5 Article 185 of the Russian Civil Code or shall be notarized, as well as in accordance with the voting proxy card execution requirements of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies. Where a copy of a proxy card is provided, such a copy shall be notarized.

Where a proposal for putting items on the agenda of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting and for nominating candidates for election to the Company's bodies is signed by a shareholder (his/her proxy) whose rights to shares are based on a relevant custody account, such a proposal (request) shall go with an abstract of the shareholder's account with the custodian in charge of keeping records of the rights to the shares in question.

Article 13. Processing requests for calling of extraordinary general shareholders meetings

1. Within Five (5) days of receipt of a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting submitted by the Company's Audit Commission, auditor or shareholder(s) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares, the Company's Board of Directors shall either call an extraordinary general shareholders meeting or reject such a request.
2. A request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting submitted by the Company's Audit Commission, auditor or shareholder(s) owning at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares, can be rejected if:
 - the procedure for submission of requests for calling of extraordinary general shareholders meetings set out in the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies, the Charter, and this Bylaw has not been complied with;
 - as at the date of submission of the relevant request, the shareholder(s) signing the request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting do not own at least Ten (10) per cent of the Company's voting shares;
 - none of the items proposed for putting on the agenda of the extraordinary general shareholders meeting are within its competence and/or comply with the requirements of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies and other statutory regulations of the Russian Federation.
3. Resolution of the Company's Board of Directors to call an extraordinary general shareholders meeting or a reasoned refusal to call an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall be communicated to the parties requesting calling of such a meeting within Three (3) days of taking such a decision.

If a request for calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is rejected by the Company's Board of Directors, this decision can be appealed in the court.

4. In case the Company's Board of Directors fails or refuses to call an extraordinary general shareholders meeting within the time limit specified in this Bylaw, the Company's body or person requesting calling of such an extraordinary general shareholders meeting, shall be entitled to appeal to the court seeking that the Company is forced to hold a extraordinary general shareholders meeting.

The court decision forcing the Company to hold an extraordinary general shareholders meeting shall specify the terms and procedure for calling and holding thereof. Court reinforcement action is delegated to the relevant plaintiff or, at the plaintiff's request, to the Company's body or another person provided they agree. The Board of Directors cannot act as such a body. The Company's body or a person holding an extraordinary general shareholders meeting pursuant to the court ruling, shall have all the statutory powers to call and hold such a meeting. In case an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is held by the plaintiff pursuant to the court ruling, any and all costs relating to preparation and holding of said meeting can be reimbursed by the Company subject to the resolution of the shareholders.

Article 14. Making proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Board of Directors by way of cumulative voting at extraordinary general shareholders meetings

1. If the proposed agenda of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting involves election of the Company's Board of Directors, then, irrespective of who has initiated the relevant extraordinary general shareholders meeting, the Company's shareholder(s) owning in aggregate at least Two (2) per cent of the Company's voting shares shall be entitled to nominate candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors within its size.

Said proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's Board of Directors shall be submitted to the Company at least Thirty (30) days prior to the relevant extraordinary general shareholders meeting. Proposals for nominating candidates for election to the Company's other bodies, shall be submitted to the Company within the terms specified in the relevant notice of general shareholders meeting.

Article 53 of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies and Section 3 hereof shall apply to such proposals as far as they concern nomination of candidates for election to the Company's bodies at an annual general meeting of shareholders.

5. PREPARATIONS FOR GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

Article 15. Preparations for an annual general meeting of shareholders

1. As part of preparations for an annual general meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall determine:
 - the form of the general shareholders meeting (a physical meeting);
 - the day of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the venue of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the hours of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the record date to determine the shareholders entitled to attend the general shareholders meeting;

 - the list of documents (materials) to be provided to the shareholders for review in the course of preparations for the general shareholders meeting as well as the relevant procedure;
 - the format and wording of the voting ballot where ballot voting is in place.
2. In addition to the decisions taken on issues set out in Paragraph 1 above in the course of preparations for an annual general meeting of shareholders, it should also be determined when registration of attendees will commence.

Article 16. Preparations for extraordinary general shareholders meetings

1. As part of preparations for an extraordinary annual general meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall determine:
 - the form of the general shareholders meeting if the form has not been specified by the initiating parties (a physical meeting or in absentia ballot voting);
 - the day of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the venue of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the hours of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the record date to determine the shareholders entitled to participate in the general shareholders meeting;
 - the agenda of the general shareholders meeting;
 - the manner how the shareholders will be notified of the general shareholders meeting;

- the list of documents (materials) to be provided to the shareholders for review in the course of preparations for the general shareholders meeting as well as the relevant procedure;
 - the format and wording of the voting ballot.

Where an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is held as in absentia ballot voting, the Board of Directors shall also set the final date for completed ballots to be accepted as well as the mailing address to where completed ballots can be delivered.

2. In addition to the decisions taken on issues set out in Paragraph 1 above in the course of preparations for an extraordinary general shareholders meeting held as a physical meeting, it should also be determined when registration of attendees will commence.
3. Where an extraordinary general shareholders meeting is held as in absentia ballot voting, the Board of Directors shall also set the final date for completed ballots to be accepted as well as the mailing address to where completed ballots can be delivered.

The Board of Directors shall not be entitled to change the wording of the agenda items and relevant draft resolutions proposed by the parties requesting calling of an extraordinary general shareholders meeting.

The Board of Directors can put items of the agenda and propose draft resolutions at its own discretion.

6. MAKING A LIST OF PERSONS ENTITLED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

Article 17. List of persons entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting

1. The list of persons entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting shall be based on the Company's shareholder register.

Article 24. Persons entitled to participate in general shareholders meetings

1. General shareholders meetings can be participated by shareholders of record, persons who have inherited the rights to shares or have acquired them as a result of reorganization, or their proxies acting under a proxy card or with the authority of law, the Company's registrar (its representative), the Company's auditor (its representative), members of the Company's bodies, nominees listed in the voting ballots for election to the Company's bodies as well as other persons admitted by the Board of Directors.

Shareholders entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting held as a physical meeting who have submitted their ballots at least Two (2) days prior to the general meeting, shall be entitled to attend the general meeting.

2. The Company shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that members of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company's sole executive body, members of the Company's Audit Commission and the Company's other bodies attend general shareholders meetings. These persons are intended to provide qualified answers to the attendees' questions.

Article 25. Right to participate in general shareholders meetings

1. A shareholder can participate in a general shareholders meeting either personally or via his/her proxy.

If shares are transferred after the relevant record date and prior to the general meeting, the shareholder of record shall grant a proxy card to the buyer or participate in the general meeting as instructed by the buyer. Same rule shall apply to any and all further share transfers.

If a shareholder of record entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting transfers his/her shares after the record date but prior to the general meeting to more than one buyer, such a shareholder of record shall vote at the general shareholders meeting as instructed by each buyer of shares and/or grant a proxy voting form to each buyer of shares specifying the number of shares covered by each proxy voting form.

If a shareholder of record has executed proxy voting forms in relation to shares that were transferred after the record date, the buyers of such shares shall be subject to registration for a general meeting held as a physical meeting.

2. A shareholder can choose one of the following options to participate in a general shareholders meeting:
 - attending a general meeting himself/herself to discuss agenda items and vote if a general meeting is held as a physical meeting;
 - appointing a proxy to attend a general meeting to discuss agenda items and vote if a general meeting is held as a physical meeting;
 - voting in absentia if a general meeting is held as in absentia voting;
 - appointing a proxy for voting in absentia if a general meeting is held as in absentia voting.

Article 26. Authorizing a proxy to participate in a general shareholders meeting

1. A shareholder can transfer his/her rights to a proxy via a duly executed written proxy card.
2. A proxy card shall specify details of the proxy giver and the proxy (first name, second name, last name for individuals or business name for legal entities, place of residence or location, passport details). Passport details of the proxy giver and the proxy specified in the relevant proxy voting form shall include a passport number and date of issue.
3. A proxy card shall be certified by the organization where the proxy giver is an employee or a student or a housing and utilities office at the proxy giver's place of residence or the administration of an inpatient facility where the proxy giver is staying, or notarized.
4. Where a proxy giver is a legal entity, the proxy card shall be signed by the head of the legal entity or any other person authorized by the legal entity's charter and shall bear the legal entity's seal or notarized.

A proxy card issued by a legal entity based on public or municipal property shall also be signed by the organization's chief (senior) accountant.

5. A shareholder entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting shall be able to replace his/her proxy at any time or opt at any time to participate in the general meeting himself/herself by cancelling the proxy card in the manner prescribed by law subject to proxy card cancellation consequences specified in Paragraph 2 Article 189 of the Russian Civil Code. In this case the shareholder shall notify the Company of his/her decision to cancel the proxy card prior to the start of registration of persons entitled to participate in the general shareholders meeting.

If a proxy card has been duly cancelled, the proxy shall not be able to register for the general shareholders meeting.

6. Where a share is owned by several joint owners, the rights attaching to such a share shall be exercised at the general shareholders meeting by one of the joint owners or by a proxy representing all of the joint owners. The authority of each of said persons shall be duly confirmed.

10. HOLDING GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS AS IN ABSENTIA VOTING

Article 27. Holding of a general shareholders meeting as in absentia voting

1. In addition to general shareholders meetings held as physical meetings (joint meetings of shareholders to discuss agenda items and resolve on motions put to vote), shareholders can also carry resolutions via in absentia voting.

The date of a general shareholders meeting held as in absentia voting shall be the final date when voting ballots can be submitted.

2. A general shareholders meeting held as in absentia voting shall not cover the following issues and shall not carry any resolutions thereon:
 - election of the Company’s Board of Directors;
 - election of the Company’s Audit Commission;
 - appointment of the Company’s auditor;
 - approval of the Company’s annual reports and accounts, including the Company’s profit and loss (profit and loss accounts), distribution of the Company’s profit, including payment (declaration) of dividends except for profit distributed as dividends for the first quarter, six months, and nine months of a fiscal year and the Company’s losses for a completed fiscal year.
3. If a general shareholders meeting is to be held as a physical meeting but its fails to be held, a repeated general shareholders meeting shall not be held as absentia voting.
4. Where a general shareholders meeting is held as in absentia voting, voting ballots shall be used.

Article 28. List of shareholders entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting held as in absentia voting

The list of shareholders entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting held as in absentia voting shall be based on the Company’s shareholder register as at the date fixed by the Company’s Board of Directors.

The record date to determine the shareholders entitled to participate in a general shareholders meeting held as in absentia voting shall not be:

- earlier than the date of the relevant resolution to call the general shareholders meeting;
- more than Fifty (50) days prior to the final date for submission of completed voting ballots.

The list shall include information specified by Russia’s Federal Commission for the Securities Market. In case calculation of the quorum of a general shareholders meeting and voting thereat involves ballots received by the Company in accordance with Subparagraph 2 Paragraph 1 Article 58 of the Federal Law on Joint Stock Companies, the record date to determine those entitled to participate in the general shareholders meeting shall be at least Thirty-five (35) days prior to the relevant general shareholders meeting.
